

CORP LOCAL BOARD MEMBER ELECTION

The term of office for current board member Jason Hathcock will expire on June 30, 2023. As a result, the Corrections Officer Retirement Plan (CORP) Local Board for the Judiciary will conduct an election to fill this upcoming vacancy.

Probation, Surveillance, and Juvenile Detention officers will be given the opportunity to nominate one of their peers as a representative to serve a four-year term of office on the Local Board.

Nomination ballots will be delivered to CORP member work email addresses by February 20, 2023. Participants will submit their nominations using an electronic ballot uniquely issued to each member from SurveyMonkey.

After nominations are tallied, the names of all nominees who are willing to serve on the Local Board will be placed on a voting ballot. Members will then be issued a voting ballot and given the opportunity to vote for the individual of their choice.

If you have any questions or need assistance, the CORP Local Board Office can be contacted at (602) 452-3650 or via e-mail to CORP@courts.az.gov.
